~ WHO WE ARE

Get to know us...

Our goal as a dedicated team of developers, strategists, and AI enthusiasts at ConnectX is to enable companies to engage with audiences at large scale while maintaining a personal touch. With experience in product leadership, back-end architecture, and front-end design, our team takes an extensive approach to designing solutions that transform social media interaction. We are dedicated to assisting brands in creating genuine connections through smooth automation since we think that excellent technology should close gaps rather than create them.
